Chamber Soloists bring Aaron Berofsky to Farmington for 2013-14 season

Friday, September 27, 2013

Chamber Soloists of Detroit will present its 2013-2014 concert season in the sanctuary at First Presbyterian Church of Farmington.

Thanks to the outstanding level of support expressed throughout its inaugural season, Chamber Soloists of Detroit has rapidly become a major cultural presence in metropolitan Detroit and beyond. This season, pianist Andre Watts joins CSD's Artistic Advisory Board of arts luminaries, pianists Menahem Pressler and Jutta Czapsky and former Detroit Symphony Music Director Gunther Herbig. Watts will also take the stage in an upcoming CSD subscription series.

As part of its mission, CSD is reaching out to connect with Detroit-born artists with international careers, starting with collaborations abroad with Vienna based flutist, Eric Lamb, cellist Erik Asgeirsson, now in Berlin, and other dynamic artists to more actively celebrate, as artistic ambassadors, the city which nurtured their talents.

Also joining CSD's 2013-2014 touring schedule are University of Michigan artist faculty, acclaimed violinist Aaron Berofsky and violist Kathryn Votapek and Detroit Symphony Orchestra cellist Una O'Riordan, who will open the season with pianist Pauline Martin at 3 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 13, at First Presbyterian Church of Farmington Hills, 26165 Farmington Road.

Patrons are encouraged to visit CSD's website (www.chambersoloistsdetroit.org) for information on CSD's three subscription concerts, Out and About appearances in Southeastern Michigan as well as exciting touring updates as they become available. Introduced last season, CSD's theatre inspired post concert Talk-Backs, Just Between Us, will continue as a complimentary part of each subscription concert.

FYI: Chamber Soloists of Detroit opens 2013-2014 at 3 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 13, at First Presbyterian Church of Farmington Hills, 26165 Farmington Road. Admission is $30; students $10. For information and ticket orders, visit www.chambersoloistsdetroit.org or call Ida at 586-944-5353.
